

Meet the Experts

Ashley Warren, CEO

Ashley Warren began his career in 1979 as a London based commodities trader where he shortly discovered and learned to apply Armstrong's ECM. He witnessed the volatility caused by global capital fluctuations firsthand while working for major financial institutions throughout the world. In 2014, he had the opportunity to apply his international trading experience and personal understanding of capital flow analysis to AE as CEO.

Erwin Pletsch, Director of Market Research

Erwin Pletsch began studying AE's proprietary models in 1985 after seeing the advertisement in Barons -- "Has the Dollar Peaked and Gold Bottomed?" He officially joined AE in 2015. Specializing in forex markets and historical research, Mr. Pletsch has spent over three decades studying and successfully trading with AE's proprietary models.

Abbas Carmody, Market Analyst

Abbas Carmody has been a member of the AE team since 2012. He has international experience working within hedge funds, economic consultancy (public and private), and the private equity field. He is proficient in multiple computer programming languages as well. His experience has provided him with a global approach to investment analysis and consultation.

Michael Campbell, Moderator

One of Canada's most respected business analysts, Michael Campbell is best known as the host of Canada's top rated syndicated business radio show MoneyTalks. He is also the Senior Business Analyst for BCTV News on Global. Michael is also a longtime friend and business associate of Martin Armstrong with a relationship spanning over 37 years.
